Description

The black E1 stacking crate, also known as a meat crate, is a versatile and reliable choice for various applications in the food industry. With dimensions of 600 x 400 x H 125 mm, this crate provides ample space for storing and transporting a wide range of food items while remaining manageable.

Made from high-quality, 100% new material, this black E1 crate meets strict standards for food safety. The closed bottom and sidewalls ensure optimal protection for stored products, keeping them safe from external contaminants and damage during transportation. This guarantees not only the quality and freshness of the products but also ensures compliance with strict hygiene regulations.
