Description

The containers from the TELLUS series are a convenient and versatile storage solution. Measuring 400 x 300 x H 220 mm and holding 18 liters, they are ideal for various applications. These containers are designed to be stacked and nested, making them space-saving and easy to store.

These containers are suitable for use with food and feature a closed bottom and side walls, as well as two closed handles shaped like bowls. These unique handles provide a secure grip, making it easy to carry the containers even when they are full.

Thanks to the closed handles, the containers can be optimally filled without wasting space. As a result, the TELLUS containers offer maximum capacity, making them perfect for various storage needs in different environments. Whether it's organizing supplies in a warehouse or storing food in a kitchen, these containers are a practical choice that is both efficient and versatile.
